

Traumatized Borders kick off seminar

Monday 20th February 2017

Agora Building, AG 109, University of Eastern Finland
Languages: English and Finnish

- 10:00–10:15 Tuulikki Kurki, UEF: Opening of the seminar and introducing the project
- 10:15–10:45 Eeva-Kaisa Prokkola, University of Oulu: Border heritage-ization as a cultural trauma reconciliation
- 10:45–11:15 Tuulikki Kurki, UEF: Trauma – the visible and invisible in cultural studies
- 11:15–11:30 Discussion
- 11:30–12:15 Lunch
- 12:15–12:45 Ismo Björn, UEF: Rivien välin historia (History in between the lines)
- 12:45–13:15 Pirjo Pöllänen, UEF: Haastattelututkimuksen saavuttamaton tieto (Unattainable knowledge in interviews)
- 13:15–13:30 Discussion
- 13:30–14:00 Coffee break (complimentary)
- 14:00–14:30 Laura Assmuth, UEF: Politicizing identity issues: ethnographic research encounters at a post-Soviet border
- 14:30–15:00 Johan Schimanski, University of Oslo, UEF: Memory, trauma in (or as) narratives of border-crossing
- 15:30–15:45 Final discussion and concluding words

Tuesday 21st February 2017

Research seminar in the Karelian Institute AU 104–105
Languages: English and Finnish

- 10:15–11:45 Tiiu Jaago, Tartu yliopisto: Elämäkertojen tutkiminen folkloristisesta näkökulmasta (Studying life stories through the viewpoint of folklore research)
- 11:45–12:30 Lunch
- 12:30–13:15 Thekla Musäus, University of Greifswald: Literature connected with the Finnish Russian border
- 13:15–14:00 Researchers of Traumatized Borders project introduce their research

